

Deputy Chief George D. Little, C.C.P.S. – Advanced TCOLE Certified Instructor

George D. Little has 45-years of diverse law enforcement experience, in which he has worked a myriad of assignments working literally in every aspect of law enforcement. He holds an Associate of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Central Texas College, a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education Criminology/Sociology from Wayland Baptist College and Associates of Science in Criminal Justice, a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice & Criminology and Master's degree in Criminology and Human Services and Counter-Terrorism from the University of the State of New York. George is a retired U.S. Army Military Police (ABN) First Sergeant/E-8 who served his country from Vietnam through Desert Storm for 21-years of honorable service. During his active duty service George served as a Military Policeman (95BV5MXH3 MOS) Patrol, Traffic Investigations, and Tactical operations. He is a former U.S. Army Criminal Investigations Division (CID) Apprentice Special Agent and Military Police Investigations (MPI) Section Chief. George worked as an under-cover Drug and Narcotics investigator with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (D.E.A.) overseas European operations, in addition to Protective Services Detail (PSD) working with the United States Secret Service for overseas assignments that included guarding five presidents, three vice presidents and numerous other VIP personnel; as well as with Department of State Diplomatic Security Service (DSS) in respect to Embassy Security and Human Trafficking. He has worked homicides, suicides, training accidents/death, Crime Scene processing specialist, Grand theft, Fraud, VICE, Narcotics/drugs and Counter-Terrorism investigations, as well as AWOL Apprehension (Wanted Felony Offenders) and served as an Evidence Custodian where he was cited numerous times for his total accountability, organization and maintenance of numerous evidence rooms. George is an experienced veteran Physical Security and Certified Crime Prevention Specialist (C.C.P.S.) with expertise in Force Protection, Force Multipliers, and Counter-Terrorism, in addition to being a MP Special Operations Operator (Counter-Terrorism for 1988 Olympics in Seoul South Korea). He is a former Military Police School Drill Sergeant, Master Instructor and certified Organizational Specialist. George served as a Deputy Provost Marshal USFK Area II, South Korea and as a First Sergeant for several MP units ending his military career as the Operations Sergeant (NCOIC) for the U.S. Army Joint Counter Drug Operations Element (JCOE) providing federal, state and local military assistance for an 8-state area of responsibility for drug interdiction. He retired from the Bexar County Sheriff's Office San Antonio, Texas (2008) where he was a Deputy Sheriff, School Resource Officer and the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) Coordinator for Bexar County and was the 2004 National D.A.R.E. Officer-Of-The-Year (and former D.A.R.E. America-Texas D.A.R.E. State Coordinator). George has over 20 year's veteran experience working in a school district environment. In addition, George received his Basic, Intermediate, Advanced and Masters (Peace Officer) Law Enforcement certifications

Continued on next page

BIO of Deputy Chief George D. Little, C.C.P.S. – Continued:

from the Texas Commission On Law Enforcement (TCOLE). He has authored and co-authored numerous articles on Counter Terrorism and Law Enforcement serving as a college adjunct professor teaching criminal justice and counter-terrorism undergraduate courses. He has a passion for teaching; in addition to being a Texas Certified Crime Prevention Specialist (C.C.P.S.). George is the former Director of Institute for Criminal Justice Studies (ICJS) – Texas State University where he developed the first ever comprehensive School-Based Law Enforcement Officer (SBLE) holistic certified training program, and state-wide TCOLE certified Crime Prevention certification curriculums; as well as authored, and developed numerous state-of-the-art, scientific and researched-based, “Best Practices” specialized law enforcement curriculums. He is a certified Federal Air Marshal Service (FAMS) LEO Flying Armed Instructor. George is currently the Deputy Chief for INTEL, Homeland Security and Training for the Bexar County Constable Office, PCT#4. Deputy Chief George D. Little was the 2011 TCOLE Professional Achievement Award recipient, and has received numerous U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration Awards and recognitions; recipient of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Directors Community Leadership Award; and American Society for Industrial Security – Business Crime Council Award. George is an appointed member of the U.S. Department of Justice – National Institute of Justice Technical Working Group for School Safety, and currently on the board of directors for the Justice Academy a nationally known training institute; Tri-TACT Board of Directors; in addition to being a certified Honorary Tennessee and Kentucky Colonel and Texas Admiral. Both his military and civilian law enforcement service clearly show his numerous achievements and successes, as documented by efficiency reports, awards and letters of Commendation. George is noted not only for his law enforcement skills, knowledge, tactics and veteran experience but also for his consistent record of taking inefficient law enforcement units and turning them into national models to wit; he was National D.A.R.E. Officer of the year and his community D.A.R.E. Board and program were recognized as the most efficient D.A.R.E. organization within D.A.R.E. America, as just one example. His organizational and administrative skills are second to none. George is a well-known and respected as a Law Enforcement “Strategic Planner”, law enforcement lessons/courses researcher and developer, manpower and budget planner and consultant for effective law enforcement organizational effectiveness and administration. George is a 1983 graduate of the Organizational Effectiveness Center and School. George retired as a Deputy Chief, INTEL, Homeland Security & TRAINING on December 30th, 2017.

