

The purpose of this course is to provide basic knowledge for law enforcement on how the internet is used for various criminal activities.

This course teaches Law Enforcement:

- The difference between Dark web and Deep Web
- The history of the Dark Web
- Step-by-Step on how a hidden service is set u
- Learn the difference between private and anonymous navigation on the Dark Web
- The introduction to the Tor Web browser and how it is used
- How to use the anonymous Tor browser for case investigation
- The benefits of using a Tor browse

- This course will increase your awareness about how the internet is used by criminals

At the end of this course:

- Students will have an understanding and know how the anonymous Tor browser is used.
- Learn how to install a virtual Private Network to be used with anonymous web browsing.
- Learn how key loggers are installed and why they are used.
- Best practices to follow during an investigation.
- Students will have a understating on the dangers of using the Dark Web.
- Students will understand the safe computer operating systems to use during investigation.
- Students will learn what types of goods and services and sold on the Dark Web.
- Students will learn what makes up the Dark Web.

(This class is eligible for TCOLE credits under General Course Reporting)

Cyber Forensics Institute of Texas, LLC
700 Milam Street Suite 1300, Houston, Texas 77002, United States
(713) 866-6550
<https://cfit.training/>