ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Manuel “Manny” Reyes

Retired Fort Worth Police Department | Law Enforcement Instructor | Criminal Investigations Consultant

Manuel “Manny” Reyes is a retired Fort Worth Police Department officer with more than 33 years of distinguished law enforcement service and over four decades of instructional experience. Since beginning his teaching career in 1985, Mr. Reyes has trained thousands of law enforcement professionals throughout the United States and internationally in a wide range of investigative, crime scene, and criminal justice disciplines.

During his law enforcement career, Mr. Reyes developed extensive expertise in criminal investigations, including homicide, robbery, cold case investigations, crime scene management, forensic evidence, and interview and interrogation techniques. He has served as an instructor for numerous law enforcement academies, colleges, regional training organizations, and public safety agencies.

Mr. Reyes has taught courses in Interview & Interrogation, Homicide Investigations, Robbery Investigations, Cold Case Investigations, Crime Scene Search and Reconstruction, Human Trafficking, Report Writing, Booking Procedures, Identity Theft Investigations, DNA for First Responders and Investigators, Spanish for Law Enforcement Officers, Intermediate Spanish for Law Enforcement, and both Basic and Advanced Detective School programs. He has also instructed Citizens on Patrol Academies in both English and Spanish.

As an instructor for the North Central Texas Council of Governments Regional Police Academy, Mr. Reyes delivered training in investigative techniques, racial profiling, crime scene investigations, report writing, booking procedures, identity theft, human trafficking, and numerous other law enforcement topics. He also served as an instructor for the Tarrant County College Police Academy, teaching Intermediate Crime Scene Investigations, DNA for First Responders and Investigators, Intermediate Spanish for Law Enforcement Officers, and various advanced investigative subjects.

Beyond the United States, Mr. Reyes has provided professional training and consultation throughout Mexico, including instructional assignments at the prestigious Tecnológico de Monterrey School of Law and numerous law enforcement agencies across the country. His international experience has helped strengthen investigative practices and professional development initiatives for public safety personnel abroad.

Mr. Reyes is a recognized subject matter expert and has served as a featured presenter at the nationally recognized Crimes Against Women Conference in Dallas, Texas, where he delivered presentations on Human Trafficking Investigations and DNA Evidence. He has also been a guest speaker at numerous professional conferences, law enforcement events, and criminal justice forums focused on investigative best practices and emerging trends in criminal investigations. Mr. Reyes also appeared on the Cold Case show for two solved cases.

Today, Mr. Reyes continues to support the law enforcement profession through training, consulting, and mentoring, bringing decades of real-world investigative experience, instructional excellence, and practical application to every course he delivers.
